Minimum Training Days

- The minimum number of days and dives are based on standards of training organisation and logistics. In no way does this reflect that the student has met prerequisites for certification just by passing these numbers.
- Each training is performance based, no matter if recreational or technician training or instructor training.
- E-learnings must be completed prior to start of training
- Each stand alone training for new environments starts with an extra evaluation/ equipment workshop day.

Conditions, Booking and Reservation policy

All prices are in US Dollar to be better comparable to the competition

If paying in Euro you will get the amount at midmarket exchange rate to deposit at my Euro Account

If paying in Pesos cash, we use the local exchange rate, if deposited into my Mexican account the official exchange rate

Each reservation requires a booking confirmation deposit. Repeat customers have special conditions.

Courses have to be paid in cash or with deposit before the start of the course

E-learning codes will be issued once payment for it is received, and is aside of the instructor's fee

Certification fees, equipment and other materials are not included in the price unless stated.

Entrance fees to cenotes are subject to change without notice as the cenote owners determine them and are payable in cash (preferably in Pesos) at the entrances directly

Diving Caves offers package prices for guided diving with discounts only if packages are prepaid in full.

All recreational diving excursions are based on a minimum 2 divers. We reserve the right to charge a single diver fee (which I will waive if I personally can be your guide).

All our tours are VIP tours and even though we may share the same boat with other divers, or have more divers at the cenote, you will have your private guide. (Exceptions in high season when this service cannot be maintained as no guides are available)

All recreational courses are based on minimum 2 participants.

All technical courses are individual and scheduled according to the demand of the customer. We require a deposit to confirm the reservation and full payment before the start of the course, discounts are available if 2 or 3 students sign in for the same course.

All instructor level courses are individual courses and as such require a deposit to confirm the booking and payment before start of the program. Individual discounts start when we receive a booking of 3 or more students.
